Adil Writer, Artist-Architect (India)

BIOGRAPHY

Adil Writer's CV reads like a travel retrospective; wanderlust is what he says takes him across the world for invited residencies, workshops and exhibitions. Adil Writer is an architect with a Master's degree in architecture from the University of Houston, Texas. He worked in Bombay as an architect before reaching Pondicherry to learn ceramics at the iconic Golden Bridge Pottery. Since 2000, he has been a partner at Mandala Pottery in Auroville, an international community tucked away in the forests of south India where he strikes a fine balance between making functional tableware and his own studio ceramics and large-scaled unfired clay paintings. Writer's ceramics and large scale paintings have been showcased at several solo and group exhibitions internationally.
